PIGGOTT BLACK BEAR

Built on solid foundations

Two of the finest and best-known printers in Cambridge - Piggott Print and Black Bear Press - merged in August 2004 to create a single major force.

The two companies accumulated over 180 years of print expertise between them.

Together as Piggott Black Bear we have vast experience in the production of journals, magazines and high quality corporate and commercial colour printing for a wide range of customers.

We come with a strong foundation of knowledge, understanding and skills which is supported by one of the most advanced print resources available.

You can rest assured that with our combination of experience and state-of-the-art facilities, your work is in safe hands.

People and machines in perfect harmony

Our recipe for a successful result starts with the basic ingredients.

Piggott Black Bear believe that providing the very best service and quality starts and finishes with our staff and the equipment we use.

Our operatives are all fully trained and qualified print professionals. A continuing investment plan has provided this dedicated, hard working and loyal team with the very latest and best equipment money can buy.

We operate the latest digital pre-press systems running PDF workflow, colour correct high-resolution digital proofers, computer-to-plate output with thermal imaging and featuring enhanced screening technology, Heidelberg Speedmaster sheet-fed colour perfecting presses and a range of finishing equipment.

A unique blend of skills and superb equipment in one package.

Ready, willing and able

The team at Piggott Black Bear are experts in interpreting and understanding customer requirements, however complicated or diverse.

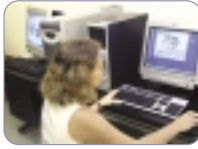

We are driven by a real passion and desire for success, and we want to stay one step ahead of our nearest competitors.

Always ready for the challenges our customers might put before us, our flexible approach means we are able to perform and deliver to exacting demands.

Our Customer Charter and ISO9001 Quality Assurance accreditation is the backbone of a total commitment to provide our valued customers with a level of service they will find hard to beat elsewhere.

This means many customers now look to Piggott Black Bear as their first choice printer - every time.

We are ready, willing and able to help - with expert advice and comprehensive support.
